ELIGIBILITY

What to Check Before Using ALB184748

A valid coupon code and an eligible account are separate conditions. Use the checklist below to understand what Temu is showing for your account.

Account	The promotion may be limited to selected, new, returning, or invited users.
Location	This guide targets the United States, but availability can still vary by delivery address.
Device	App-only and website offers can be different. Compare the displayed terms if needed.
Products	Some categories, sellers, or items may be excluded from a promotion.
Minimum order	The account may need to reach a stated basket value before the coupon applies.
Expiration	Use the date and countdown displayed inside Temu, not an old screenshot or third-party claim.

Verified code, variable offer

ALB184748 is provided as the campaign coupon code. The exact benefit is confirmed by the promotion screen shown to the shopper inside Temu.

Before you order

Take a moment to compare the subtotal, shipping, taxes, and final payable amount. A coupon can be valid even when a particular basket does not meet every promotion condition.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Use the Code Without Losing Sight of the Final Price

A useful coupon decision is based on the final payable amount, not only the headline shown before checkout.

Build the basket first Add the items you actually need, then test ALB184748 against that basket.	Read item restrictions A promotion may cover selected products while excluding other categories or sellers.
Compare app and website If Temu displays different promotions, use the option with the better final total.	Check shipping Confirm the delivery cost and delivery estimate before payment.
Check the final total Review subtotal, coupon adjustment, shipping, tax, and the amount charged.	Save the confirmation Keep the order confirmation and promotion details for your records.

Simple evaluation formula

Focus on the payable amount

Final payable amount = basket subtotal - eligible promotion + shipping + tax. The best promotion is the one that produces the lowest valid final total for the products you want.

TROUBLESHOOTING

What to Do if ALB184748 Does Not Apply

Most coupon issues come from entry mistakes, account eligibility, basket conditions, or a promotion that has changed.

The code is not recognized

Re-enter ALB184748 with no spaces. Check every letter and number, then restart the app or page.

The code is accepted but no discount appears

Open the promotion details and confirm the basket meets any item, account, or minimum-order requirements.

The offer is different from another shopper's offer

Temu may personalize promotions by account, device, region, or campaign window.

The code worked before but not now

Check whether the promotion expired, was already redeemed, or is limited to one use.

The app and website show different results

Use the channel that displays the valid better offer, after comparing the full final total.

The basket changed after applying the code

Recheck eligibility after adding, removing, or replacing products.

Best retry sequence

Copy ALB184748 again, verify the account and delivery country, review the promotion terms, check the basket requirements, and then retry once. Repeated random attempts do not change account eligibility.
